

Fall down 7 times,
stand up 8.

—Japanese Proverb

Southbury School Value for this half term is:

Determination

Never giving up.

Discovering something new.

Bouncing back.

What does determination look like?

People who show determination:

- Know that they can achieve anything they set their mind to if they are prepared to work hard.
- Keep working to the best of their ability even when they hit obstacles or problems.
- Lead by example and encourage others when they need it.

People who show determination realise:

- We are much more capable than we may give ourselves credit for.
- The best feeling of success often comes after working through the obstacles that were in our way .
- We can achieve anything we set our minds to.

People show others how to show determination by:

- Encouraging others to keep going, even when they are finding things hard.
- Reminding someone of what they could achieve if they just keep working towards it and don't give up.
- Bouncing back, even when we hit an obstacle or a problem.
