

People Who Help Us

- 8 There are people who help us every day,
14 Making lives better in every way.
- 20 The nurses working day and night,
27 They keep you well with spirits bright.
- 34 The doctors helping to fix what's wrong,
42 They cure your ills and make you strong.
- 49 Police officers there to look after you,
56 They keep you safe and others too.
- 64 The bus drivers get you there on time,
72 They drive the bus, come rain or shine!
- 80 The teachers who help you learn new things,
87 They inspire you and give you wings.
- 95 Let's stop and think and let them know,
101 We appreciate how far they go!

Questions

1. Which of the people in the poem help you learn new things?

2. Find and copy two words that rhyme.

3. Who are the first people that the poem tells us about?

4. Write another verse of the poem about people who help us.
The _____,
They _____.

People Who Help Us

8 There are people who help us every day,
14 Making lives better in every way.
20 The nurses working day and night,
27 They keep you well with spirits bright.
34 The doctors helping to fix what's wrong,
42 They cure your ills and make you strong.
49 Police officers there to look after you,
56 They keep you safe and others too.
64 The bus drivers get you there on time,
72 They drive the bus, come rain or shine!
80 The teachers who help you learn new things,
87 They inspire you and give you wings.
95 Let's stop and think and let them know,
101 We appreciate how far they go!

Answers

1. Which of the people in the poem help you learn new things?

Teachers help you to learn new things.

2. Find and copy two words that rhyme.
Accept any two of the following: day and way; night and bright; wrong and strong; you and too; time and shine; things and wings; know and go.

3. Who are the first people that the poem tells us about?

Nurses are the first people that the poem tells us about.

4. Write another verse of the poem about people who help us.

Pupils' own responses, such as: The fire fighters don't mess about, They get there fast, put fires out!