

Subordinating Conjunctions	Apostrophes	Spelling
Add a sensible subordinating conjunction and finish this sentence. Cameron gazed longingly through the window _____ _____ 	Rewrite this sentence so that it includes a plural possessive apostrophe. All the boots belonging to the boys were wet from the snow. _____ _____ _____	Mr Whoops has made two spelling mistakes. Underline them and write the correct spellings below. On an advenshure in the forest, I spotted a rare creatyure in the undergrowth. _____ _____
Determiners	Noun Phrases	Prepositions
Underline the three determiners in this sentence. The penguin ate five lanternfish and an octopus! Now write a sentence using the determiner 'an'. _____ _____	Write an expanded noun phrase about the picture to complete the sentence. The boy ate _____ _____ 	Add suitable prepositions to the sentences. My mischievous cat ran _____ her cat flap into the house. Meowing, she leapt _____ the sofa _____ me.

Subordinating Conjunctions	Apostrophes	Spelling
Add a sensible subordinating conjunction and finish this sentence. Accept any subordinate clause with a subordinating conjunction, e.g. Cameron gazed longingly through the window because he wanted to play in the snow.	Rewrite this sentence so that it includes a plural possessive apostrophe. All the boots belonging to the boys were wet from the snow. Accept any correctly punctuated variation of the sentence that includes an apostrophe for plural possession, e.g. All the boys' boots were wet from the snow.	Mr Whoops has made two spelling mistakes. Underline them and write the correct spellings below. On an advenshure in the forest, I spotted a rare creatyure in the undergrowth. adventure creature
Determiners	Noun Phrases	Prepositions
Underline the three determiners in this sentence. The penguin ate five lanternfish and an octopus! Now write a sentence using the determiner 'an'. Accept any sentence using 'an' correctly, e.g. I am eating an egg.	Write an expanded noun phrase about the picture to complete the sentence. Accept any expanded noun phrase based on the picture, e.g. The boy ate a delicious ice cream in a waffle cone.	Add suitable prepositions to the sentences. My mischievous cat ran through her cat flap into the house. Meowing, she leapt onto the sofa beside me. Accept any appropriate prepositions.