

Subordinating Conjunctions	Determiners	Time Adverbials
Write the subordinating conjunction that fits best into each sentence. Anna took a deep breath _____ she dived into the pool. _____ he slipped on the ice, Gethin needed his ankle bandaged.	Help Mr Whoops unjumble the determiners. ahtt _____ nay _____ hteer _____ 	Write a time adverbial phrase for each sentence. _____, Sana woke up and got ready for swimming. _____, she stopped. She could not wait for the lesson _____.
Relative Clauses	Homophones	Word Endings
Add a relative clause and any appropriate punctuation to finish the sentence. Start your relative clause with a relative pronoun. Felix _____ _____ couldn't stop sneezing. 	Circle the correct homophone to complete each sentence. We had to weight / wait for the bus in the rain. I woke up late this morning / mourning. She threw the ball with all her might / mite.	Write a word with the -ible word ending to match each definition. _____ : Could happen or be done. _____ : Can be seen. _____ : Very unpleasant or nasty.

Subordinating Conjunctions	Determiners	Time Adverbials
Write the subordinating conjunction that fits best into each sentence. Anna took a deep breath before/after/while she dived into the pool. Because/As/Since/When/After he slipped on the ice, Gethin needed his ankle bandaged. Accept any other suitable response.	Help Mr Whoops unjumble the determiners. ahtt that nay any hteer three	Write a time adverbial phrase for each sentence. Accept any appropriate phrase, e.g. Early one day, Sana woke up and got ready for swimming. After a bit, she stopped. She could not wait for the lesson tomorrow afternoon.
Relative Clauses	Homophones	Word Endings
Add a relative clause and any appropriate punctuation to finish the sentence. Start your relative clause with a relative pronoun. Accept any appropriately punctuated relative clause, e.g. Felix, who has dreadful hay fever, couldn't stop sneezing.	Circle the correct homophone to complete each sentence. We had to weight / wait for the bus in the rain. I woke up late this morning / mourning. She threw the ball with all her might / mite.	Write a word with the -ible word ending to match each definition. possible: Could happen or be done. visible: Can be seen. horrible: Very unpleasant or nasty.