

Possessive Pronouns	Prefixes	Spelling
Add a suitable possessive pronoun. Krystian packed up everything that was _____ and set off for a new life at university. 	Underline the words with incorrect prefixes. Rewrite them on the lines. The stolen trophy was ilreplaceable. _____ It was unprobable that the event would take place. _____ 	Underline and correct Mr Whoops's four spelling mistakes. I tried to comunicate the nessecary information to my team. If they follow my advise, we'll win the competition. _____ _____ _____ _____
Tenses	Adverbials	Determiners
Rewrite each verb in the tense shown. We _____ after a snake. ↑ to look – present progressive Last night, the snake _____. ↑ to escape – past perfect	Rewrite the sentence with the adverbial at the beginning. Meeta measured her height every few weeks. _____ _____ _____ _____ 	Circle the determiners. When she grows up, my sister wants to be an acrobat. She has given me many headaches about it. I personally aim to study every subject going.

Possessive Pronouns	Prefixes	Spelling
Add a suitable possessive pronoun. Krystian packed up everything that was his and set off for a new life at university. Accept 'theirs' or 'hers' instead of 'his'.	Underline the words with incorrect prefixes. Rewrite them on the lines. The stolen trophy was ilreplaceable. irreplaceable It was unprobable that the event would take place. improbable	Underline and correct Mr Whoops's four spelling mistakes. I tried to comunicate the nessecary information to my team. If they follow my advise, we'll win the compitition communicate necessary advice competition
Tenses	Adverbials	Determiners
Rewrite each verb in the tense shown. We are looking after a snake. ↑ to look – present progressive Last night, the snake had escaped. ↑ to escape – past perfect	Rewrite the sentence with the adverbial at the beginning. Meeta measured her height every few weeks. Every few weeks, Meeta measured her height.	Circle the determiners. When she grows up, my sister wants to be an acrobat. She has given me many headaches about it. I personally aim to study every subject going.